

TASK 1. Express English: Entrepreneurs

If you could start a business what would it be, and why? Hear what people in London say, and match the business models with the speakers. There are 3 distractors.

| | A LIBRARY | A DANCING COMPANY | A SOCCER ACADEMY |
|---------------------|-----------|-------------------|------------------|
| A MODELLING COMPANY | | | |
| A HEALTHY FOOD SHOP | | | |
| A BOOKSHOP | | | |
| SPEAKER 1 | | | |
| SPEAKER 2 | | | |
| SPEAKER 3 | | | |

FROM: http://www.bbc.co.uk/worldservice/learningenglish/general/expressenglish/2011/12/120102_ee_entrepreneurs_page.shtml

TASK 2. The Dog Whisperer

You are going to watch a video about Cesar Millan, one of the best-known freelance dog-behaviour experts. As you watch, say if the following statements are TRUE/FALSE:

1. How did you become "The dog whisperer"?
 - He became known for walking a pack of dogs off leash in the United States.
 - Walking dogs off leash was illegal in Mexico.
2. What do you love most about your job?
 - He likes doesn't like to work outdoors.
 - He believes dogs are not trustworthy.
 - He thinks dogs are students to be taught principles.
 - He says dogs can give people hope.
3. What's the hardest part of your job
 - He finds it difficult to make people put his instructions into practice.
 - People tend to think their problems with their dogs will be sorted out easily by Cesar.
4. What do you do when you're not working with dogs?
 - He likes tasting dishes from different countries cuisine.
5. How would you say dogs are like people? Tick the ones mentioned in the video:
 - In contrast to humans, dogs don't have goals.
 - Humans examine the world by using their eyes first.

FROM: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7ENM7mijLDw>